SOME SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS:

- Your contribution is tax deductible and helps benefit the Aztec Public Library, which is a non-profit organization dedicated to enhancing the resources and services in the Aztec Public Library system.
- Please allow two weeks for processing. The library will purchase a book in the category of your choice; sorry we are unable to buy specific books.
- The price of the book will closely approximate the amount of the purchaser's contribution. Any remaining difference will be used to purchase library books and strengthen our collection. The difference is non-refundable. No accumulation of funds allowed.
- The longevity of a book depends on its usage. Children's books are well-loved and wear out quickly.
- The library is unable to reapply bookplates in replaced books.

Books make wonderful presents for people of all ages and interests. Regardless of the occasion, a book in honor of or in memory of someone will have lasting significance. When you fund a book, the library will place a bookplate inscribed with that special someone's name on the inside cover of a new library book. The Aztec Public Library will notify the recipient of your thoughtful gift with a beautiful acknowledgment card.

Whatever their interest we have a tremendous variety of categories to choose from. Select a category from the list following and the library will purchase a book in the category indicated for the amount specified.

Please fill out the form below so accurate information may be included in the acknowledgments sent out to both the purchaser and the recipient:
